The 5th Annual Conference of the French Association of Law and Economics (AFED) will be organized on October 15-16, 2020, on the campus of the University of Paris Nanterre (Max Weber Building).

Plenary sessions with round-tables and a « Job Market Forum » (specifically dedicated to PhD and master students) conducted by professionals should be planned. However, due the current sanitary situation and the uncertainty surrounding the next academic year on the campus, the Conference could take place online.

DEADLINE OF SUBMISSIONS:
Full papers (French or English) as well as long abstracts (at least 2 pages) must be submitted at https://afed2020.sciencesconf.org/, before August 17, 2020.

DECISIONS:
The selection of papers will be notified around September 7, 2020.

FEES:
Students (PhD, post-docs): 45 euros (+ membership: 20 euros)
Professors (Full, Associate, Assistant): 85 euros (+ membership: 30 euros)

LOCAL ORGANIZERS:
Eliane Badaoui, Andreea Cosnita, Sophie Harnay, Eric Langlais, Nadine Levratto, Alessandro Melcarne, Benjamin Monnery, Saïd Souam (EconomiX CNRS & UPN); Katrin Deckert, Anne-Sophie Choné-Grimaldi (CEDCACE, UPN).

CONTACT AND INFORMATION:
eric.langlais@parisnanterre.fr